PREFACE

DEVELOPMENTS IN THE POST-LEGAL ARENA

The Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom emerges with renewed vigour

<https://www.theconservativelibertariansociety.com/forum/tclp-uk-proceedings/the-conservative-libertarian-party-of-the-united-kingdom-emerges-with-renewed-vigour>

in TCLP-UK proceedings

There has been many ups and downs in the development of the ideas and progress in establishing the foundations of the Conservative Libertarian Party of the United Kingdom (TCLP-UK) as it is work in progress.

As Founder of the Conservative Libertarian Society and President of TCL:P-UK, this morning the 22 July 2023 with all legal manouvres completed I see that the Party has survived and I am keen to championing the course of the Party into the future.

The Party needs to accommodate itself into the Reality that structurally it is powerless to do anything to the Constitution of the United Kingdom. I also see that the Constitution has its checks and balances that enables a devoted and committed patriot that I am to moderate its policies into what is possible and what is destabillising to the State.

So the policy of having a referendum to determine the Head of State every generation is to be abandoned, rather than the TCLP-UK as a political force in the United Kingdom.

I pledge loyalty to the Monarch now in King Charles III, Queen Cammilla and the rest of the Royal entourage in Prince William and the subsequent generations of the Monarchs to come.

Whether the Party acquires Members within the Founder's life time who is to say. I can but try to convince people that there is room for a middle of the road party that is different in character to the Liberal Democrats in the United Kingdom. It is better to have a Conservative and Unionist Party in government than rasiing the profile of the Liberal Democrats as we head into 2024's general election. TCLP-UK will stand on its own to highlight issues of concern to the population of the United Kingdom in the meantime.

Your Honour

I had instructed my lawyers Olives Solicitors to take the necessary action on the attached proceedings as linked here: RE: Panigrahi v Prime Minister of UK our ref: CA-2023-000750 (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/re-panigrahi-v-prime-minister-of-uk-our-ref-ca-2023-000750>

following the response to my concerns to the Lord Chancellor and Secretary of State for Justice, that I referred back to North Kent Magistrates Court and Kent Police as a complaint to be addressed immediately. TO (ref: 42727210) - Dr Shantanu Panigrahi (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)

<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/to-ref-42727210-dr-shantanu-panigrahi-1>

There has been no response from North Kent Magistrates Court and Kent Police in combination to the progress on the totally inept and invalid summons referral to court served on me by Kent Police which is a Hate Crime as attached: LetterfromNKMCHearingTrial10Nov2023_2 pm.pdf to address the submissions as linked here: The End is Nigh for the Persecutors, the unjust State Establishment | Daily Bulletin (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/forum/general-discussion/the-end-is-nigh-for-the-persecutors-the-unjust-state-establishment>

Olives Solicitors have since 28 April 2023 been harnessed and manipulated by Kent Police not to cooperate with me so as to not have to pay me the £4 million in damages and compensation for the decade long victimisation, persecution, terrorism by the 5 arrests and a 6 coerced voluntary interview in Police Stations, obstruction of justice and perverting the course of justice, seizing our family IT property and associated items to protect the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom from having to face justice for not having discharged his responsibilities lawfully.

I am therefore hereby applying the Court of Appeal for a Summary Judgment in favour of the Applicant to the Appeal through a Duty Judge at the Court of Appeal this weekend in accordance with the agreement reached with the jurisdiction lawyer on the due process to be followed for this Appeal.

I should be most grateful for your kind consideration, and acknowledgement immediately of this submission for legal purposes.

Yours sincerely

To
 The Court of Appeal

Dear Sir/Madam

I am sorry, I did not get an immediate acknowledgement from the Civil Appeals Registry that I needed for legal purposes, perhaps because I sent my email to the wrong email address, or there may be other reason(s) that the Duty Judge is unable to comment on the due process for this Appeal.

In case the jurisdiction of the Court of Appeal to entertain this Appeal is still questionable for unstated reasons, I am forwarding the communication to the other parties to consider the merits of the arguments presented. I am assuming that some Court must have jurisdiction to hear the Appeal.

Texted back to Jill Jesson this Monday morning at 6.07 am: 'Things have settled down to a routine for me now after yet another arrest on 13 July 2023 on the same sort of thing (stalking) that I denied being involved in. I needed to get Kent Police off my back so when none of the lower courts would investigate the matter took it up to the Supreme Court for adjudication yesterday evening. Now the real test of whether the Police is free to perpetrate hate crimes will be found.'

Your Honour

I had instructed my lawyers Olives Solicitors to take the necessary action on the attached proceedings as linked here: RE: Panigrahi v Prime Minister of UK our ref: CA-2023-000750 (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/re-panigrahi-v-prime-minister-of-uk-our-ref-ca-2023-000750>

following the response to my concerns to the Lord Chancellor and Secretary of State for Justice, that I referred back to North Kent Magistrates Court and Kent Police as a complaint to be addressed immediately. TO (ref: 42727210) - Dr Shantanu Panigrahi (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/to-ref-42727210-dr-shantanu-panigrahi-1>

There has been no response from North Kent Magistrates Court and Kent Police in combination to the progress on the totally inept and invalid summons referral to court served on me by Kent Police which is a Hate Crime as attached: LetterfromNKMCHearingTrial10Nov2023_2 pm.pdf to address the

submissions as linked here: The End is Nigh for the Persecutors, the unjust State Establishment | Daily Bulletin (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/forum/general-discussion/the-end-is-nigh-for-the-persecutors-the-unjust-state-establishment>

Olives Solicitors have since 28 March 2023 been harnessed and manipulated by Kent Police not to cooperate with me so as to not have to pay me the £4 million in damages and compensation for the decade long victimisation, persecution, terrorism by the 5 arrests and a 6 coerced voluntary interview in Police Stations, obstruction of justice and perverting the course of justice, seizing our family IT property and associated items to protect the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom from having to face justice for not having discharged his responsibilities lawfully.

I am therefore hereby applying to the Court of Appeal for a Summary Judgment in favour of the Applicant to the Appeal through a Duty Judge at the Court of Appeal this weekend in accordance with the agreement reached with the jurisdiction lawyer on the due process to be followed for this Appeal.

I should be most grateful for your kind consideration, and acknowledgement immediately of this submission for legal purposes.

11.43 am (UK-Time) 24 July 2023

I quickly covered Olives Solicitors by telephone and speaking to the owner, who seemed very irritated by my call, so I discussed the matter saying how I had been investigating highly complex matters and sent it emails, that I had been arrested again on 13 July 2023 and they were not present as I had asked Kent Police to channel all communications to them. I was frustrated and confused and sent 18 odd emails to Olives Solicitors without a reply. He said you did not have to as it amounts to harassment. I told him that I had been bailed again to September 28th and 10 October, and you were not aware. He said that Olives Solicitors would only represent me on the first thing as in the letter of agreement and that was for malicious communications and not for the stalking. The conversation ended as he was recovering from the shock of the call.

Seeing that he was holding his position, I wrote to the Legal Ombudsman as follows:

Legal Ombudsman File Reference: F155593 ERef:00022204829

To
The Legal Ombudsman

Dear Sir

I have just spoken to a male owner/manager of Duty Solicitor Olives Solicitors having sent them the following updating email on the legal matters of stalking, and malicious communications that Kent Police has been investigating me on as a suspect.

I have sent them over 15 emails since Olives Solicitors sent me a letter of contractual agreement with not a single reply back to me to update me on the progress of the matter, or act as a go-between with the consequence that I was arrested again by Kent Police on 13 July 2023 and Olives Solicitors were not present at the interview.

Twice in the past Olives Solicitors were issued notices of my complaint to the Legal Ombudsman and I looked for other solicitors to assist me for its lackadaisical approach to my Case and said that I did not wish them to represent me for there was such a grotesque lack of communication as I was continually being trolled and Kent Police would not give me any details except for what took place at the interviews. I was frustrated and confused with the complexities that I had to deal with single-handedly with no support from Olives Solicitors

Further, the person I spoke with said to me to turn the tables on me that the number of emails sent by me amounted to harassment by me, which is bizarre for that was genuinely within the process of legal communications.

Kent Police have bailed me for malicious communications suspect until 18 September 2023 1600 hours and for stalking until 10 October 2023, 1600 hours as things stand now. When I mentioned the circumstances as they stood following the further arrest, Olives Solicitors are now saying that it is only willing to represent me for the malicious communications offence as set out in their 19 April 2023 letter and not the stalking offence which predates it as well as being subsequent to the former.

If I am charged with any offences or if further arrests and interviews by Kent Police take place on either of the two issues it would be wrong that Olives Solicitors only represent me on one of those issues as these are related and a need to be addressed for a Trial Hearing of 10 November 2022 2 pm at North Kent Magistrates Court sitting at Medway County Court for which I need its representation so as not to duplicate effort

I should be most grateful if you would use your office to intervene in this matter for a resolution as soon as possible.

Dear Dr. Panigrahi

Your complaint about OLIVES SOLICITORS LIMITED

Thank you for your email of 1 May 2023 regarding your complaint about Olives Solicitors. We apologise for the delay in responding, which is due to the high demand for our service at the current time.

Having reviewed the documentation you have provided to us, it looks like you have not complained to your service provider. You will need to do this first and allow them up to eight weeks to respond. We have a template complaint letter available on our website. If you have already complained and either received a final response that you are not happy with or have waited eight weeks from the date of your complaint, we may be able to help.

Please complete our online complaint checker. You will need to provide personal information and documents such as:

A copy of your formal complaint, and the service provider's responses including any final response. If the service provider did not respond to your complaint within eight weeks: Proof of delivery, e.g., a recorded delivery receipt or confirmation that your complaint was sent to a valid email address for the service provider. If you did not send your complaint recorded delivery, please confirm the date you sent the complaint, and we will contact the Service Provider to confirm receipt of your complaint. If the Service Provider says they did not receive your letter of complaint, you may be asked to resend your letter of complaint.

Do not delay as you have a maximum of six months after you receive their final response to bring your complaint to us.

For complaints referred to us after 1 April 2023, the matter complained about must have taken place in the previous year or, if it happened more than a year ago, you must have become aware of it in the past year. Come to us as soon as you can after trying to resolve your complaint with your service provider – don't delay. You have a maximum of six months after you receive their final response to bring your complaint to us.

When responding, please tell us your file reference which is shown at the top of this email. Do not send any original documents by post as we scan all our incoming mail to make computer copies and then destroy the originals. Please send any information requested to our email address: enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk.

If we do not hear from you, we will assume that you do not wish to continue with your complaint and will close our file. We will not try to contact you again.

Kind Regards

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it could be up to 10 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman
PO Box 6806
Wolverhampton
WV1 9WJ

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 10am to 4pm from Monday to Friday. Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months.

Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We are committed to making sure the way we work does not put you at a disadvantage so in addition to our legal duty to provide reasonable adjustments for disabled people, if you need any help or support, please tell us about it and we will do our best to meet your needs. We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.

Your Honour

I had instructed my lawyers Olives Solicitors to take the necessary action on the attached proceedings as linked here: RE: Panigrahi v Prime Minister of UK our ref: CA-2023-000750 (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/re-panigrahi-v-prime-minister-of-uk-our-ref-ca-2023-000750>

following the response to my concerns to the Lord Chancellor and Secretary of State for Justice, that I referred back to North Kent Magistrates Court and Kent Police as a complaint to be addressed immediately. TO (ref: 42727210) - Dr Shantanu Panigrahi (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/post/to-ref-42727210-dr-shantanu-panigrahi-1>

There has been no response from North Kent Magistrates Court and Kent Police in combination to the progress on the totally inept and invalid summons referral to court served on me by Kent Police which is a Hate Crime as attached: LetterfromNKMCHearingTrial10Nov2023_2 pm.pdf to address the submissions as linked here: The End is Nigh for the Persecutors, the unjust State Establishment | Daily Bulletin (knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com)
<https://www.knowledgeassessmentanddissemination.com/forum/general-discussion/the-end-is-nigh-for-the-persecutors-the-unjust-state-establishment>

Olives Solicitors have since 28 March 2023 been harnessed and manipulated by Kent Police not to cooperate with me so as to not have to pay me the £4 million in damages and compensation for the decade long victimisation, persecution, terrorism by the 5 arrests and a 6 coerced voluntary interview in Police Stations, obstruction of justice and perverting the course of justice, seizing our family IT property and associated items to protect the Prime Minister of the United Kingdom from having to face justice for not having discharged his responsibilities lawfully.

I am therefore hereby applying to the Court of Appeal for a Summary Judgment in favour of the Applicant to the Appeal through a Duty Judge at the Court of Appeal this weekend in accordance with the agreement reached with the jurisdiction lawyer on the due process to be followed for this Appeal.

I should be most grateful for your kind consideration, and acknowledgement immediately of this submission for legal purposes.

Yours sincerely

North Kent Magistrates's Court

Code 1966

Referral to Full Court Hearing

Your case was considered by the court under the single justice procedure. However, owing to the reasons given, your case has now been referred to a hearing before a full magistrates' court. For information on the reason, see below.

For trial

At the next hearing, the magistrates will receive evidence either in the form of written statements or from any witnesses that attend court. You must attend, and bring with you any witness that you will call to give evidence on your behalf. If you do not agree with any statement being read to the court, you must inform the prosecution immediately.

Advice and help

If you need advice on what to do you should get help from a lawyer or advice agency at once. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you may be able to get free advice about your case. For more information see www.lawsociety.org.uk/for-the-public/common-legal-issues/criminal/

Do not wait until you come to court.

If you need any general help about this summons contact the court office. PLEASE NOTE: Court staff are not able to give you specific advice on how to respond to the allegation.

To
The Legal Ombudsman

Dear Sir

I have just spoken to a male owner/manager of Duty Solicitor Olives Solicitors having sent them the following updating email on the legal matters of stalking, and malicious communications that Kent Police has been investigating me on as a suspect.

I have sent them over 15 emails since Olives Solicitors sent me a letter of contractual agreement with not a single reply back to me to update me on the progress of the matter , or act as a go-between with the consequence that I was arrested again by Kent Police on 13 July 2023 and Olives Solicitors were not present at the interview.

Twice in the past Olives Solicitors were issued notices of my complaint to the Legal Ombudsman and I looked for other solicitors to assist me for its lackadaisical approach to my Case and I said that I did not wish them to represent me for there was such a grotesque lack of communication as I was continually being trolled and Kent Police would not give me any details except for what took place at the interviews. I was frustrated and confused with the complexities that I had to deal with single-handedly with no support from Olives Solicitors

Further, the person I spoke with said to me to turn the tables on me that the number of emails sent by me amounted to harassment by me, which is bizarre for that was genuinely within the process of legal communications.

Kent Police have bailed me for malicious communications suspect until 18 September 2023 1600 hours and for stalking until 10 October 2023, 1600 hours as things stand now. When I mentioned the circumstances as they stood following the further arrest, Olives Solicitors are now saying that it is only willing to represent me for the malicious communications offence as set out in their 19 April 2023 letter and not the stalking offence which predates it as well as being subsequent to the former.

If I am charged with any offences or if further arrests and interviews by Kent Police take place on either of the two issues it would be wrong that Olives Solicitors only represent me on one of those issues as these are related and a need to be addressed for a Trial Hearing of 10 November 2022 2 pm at North Kent Magistrates Court sitting at Medway County Court for which I need its representation for both offences so as not to duplicate effort

I should be most grateful if you would use your office to intervene in this matter for a resolution as soon as possible.

Dear Dr. Panigrahi

Your complaint about OLIVES SOLICITORS LIMITED

Thank you for your email of 1 May 2023 regarding your complaint about Olives Solicitors. We apologise for the delay in responding, which is due to the high demand for our service at the current time.

Having reviewed the documentation you have provided to us, it looks like you have not complained to your service provider. You will need to do this first and allow them up to eight weeks to respond. We have a template complaint letter available on our website. If you have already complained and either received a final response that you are not happy with or have waited eight weeks from the date of your complaint, we may be able to help.

Please complete our online complaint checker. You will need to provide personal information and documents such as:

A copy of your formal complaint, and the service provider's responses including any final response. If the service provider did not respond to your complaint within eight weeks: Proof of delivery, e.g., a recorded delivery receipt or confirmation that your complaint was sent to a valid email address for the service provider. If you did not send your complaint recorded delivery, please confirm the date you sent the complaint, and we will contact the Service Provider to confirm receipt of your complaint. If the Service Provider says they did not receive your letter of complaint, you may be asked to resend your letter of complaint.

Do not delay as you have a maximum of six months after you receive their final response to bring your complaint to us.

For complaints referred to us after 1 April 2023, the matter complained about must have taken place in the previous year or, if it happened more than a year ago, you must have become aware of it in the past year. Come to us as soon as you can after trying to resolve your complaint with your service provider – don't delay. You have a maximum of six months after you receive their final response to bring your complaint to us.

When responding, please tell us your file reference which is shown at the top of this email. Do not send any original documents by post as we scan all our incoming mail to make computer copies and then destroy the originals. Please send any information requested to our email address: enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk.

If we do not hear from you, we will assume that you do not wish to continue with your complaint and will close our file. We will not try to contact you again.

Kind Regards

Legal Ombudsman

Thank you for your email

We are currently dealing with a high volume of enquiries.

If you already have a case with us, we will add your email to the file. A colleague will be in touch with you just as soon as they review your email.

If you are contacting us for the first time about a complaint, please be aware that it could be up to 10 weeks before you hear from us, and at that stage, we may need to ask you for more information. We thank you for your patience and would like to reassure you that our teams are working very hard to review and respond to your email as quickly as possible.

Once we have confirmed that we have all the information we need, we will write to you to let you know that we have passed your case for formal assessment by an investigator.

Please be aware that there is a considerable wait for a case to be assessed by an investigator, which varies depending on the complexity of the case. More information about the wait times will be included in the letter we send to you at the time the case is added to a queue and can also be found on our website.

If you have concerns about the wait times and feel they may detrimentally impact on you or your case, for example, because of a financial hardship or serious health concern, please let us know.

Have you complained to your service provider?

We can only investigate a complaint once the service provider has had the chance to investigate it and respond. This means you need to make a formal complaint to them first. You can find further information on our website about how to complain to your service provider, including a template complaint letter.

How to complain to us

If you have already complained to your service provider and have not received a satisfactory response, then we might be able to help. The easiest way to check if we can help you is to use our complaint checker tool on our website. Alternatively, you can send us a completed complaint form, which is available to download from our website.

We will need your completed complaint form, along with a copy of your complaint to the service provider and copies of any responses you have received from them. Please only send us copies and not original documents.

You should be aware that we are also unable to accept documents from an online document storage facility such as Dropbox.

Do not send us any other information until we request it.

If you need to write to us, our address is:

Legal Ombudsman

PO Box 6806

Wolverhampton

WV1 9WJ

Our telephone number is 0300 555 0333. We are open from 10am to 4pm from Monday to Friday.

Calls may be recorded and used for training and monitoring purposes.

Have we let you know we have passed your case for assessment?

If we have already let you know your case is awaiting assessment by an investigator, you do not need to do anything further at this stage. An investigator will contact you when they start working on the complaint. Please note that you may be waiting a considerable time before your case will be passed to an investigator. The letter we have sent to you should provide you with more specific information about these timescales. We also aim update you every three months.

Supporting you in making a complaint

You can find out more about how we work and how we can help you by visiting our website (www.legalombudsman.org.uk). Here you will find a copy of our complaint form and information about how to complain, along with useful factsheets.

We are committed to making sure the way we work does not put you at a disadvantage so in addition to our legal duty to provide reasonable adjustments for disabled people, if you need any help or support, please tell us about it and we will do our best to meet your needs. We also understand that your circumstances might change, along with the support that you need, so please let us know at any time and we will consider your request.

Dear Sirs

I had requested the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom for a reconsideration of the Appeal for a Emergency Summary Judgment yesterday as shown in the attached: ToSupremeCourtofUK (Emergency Summary Judgement RequiredReconsideration)24Jul2023.docx, but still have not received an reply let alone an acknowledgement that the Appeal is being entertained.

So I am bewildered this morning not knowing where my litigation lies, whether at the Court of Appeal, the Central London County Court, East Kent Magistrates Court, North Kent Magistrates Court, Maidstone Crown Court, Medway County Court, the Kings Bench of the High Court or the Administrative Court of the Royal Courts of Justice.

There are various Case Numbers associated with this Appeal: HQ17x01773, J00ME572, E35YM660, CO/1680/2002; or perhaps I am listed as a vexatious litigant by the Attorney General.

Would you be so kind as to assist me in locating the proceedings?

If there are none to be had, what is the course of action required by me on the attached appointments:

- (b) Stalking Bail 13 July 2023DCFields.pdf
- (c) LetterfromNKMCHearingTrial10Nov2023_2pm.pdf

As a psychiatric patient under Secondary Care of the Community Mental Health Team recently confirmed by Dr Emmanuelle Oranasu of Britton House of being paranoid schizophrenic as attached: FrBrittonHouseCAREPLAN_DrEmmanuel Oranasu3July202312Jul2023.docx, I find myself in Crisis level distress this morning with these uncertainties hanging over my head and have discussed this with my psychotherapist Jill Jesson of Vitali Chi over the past few days whose diagnosis of my mental condition is similar to that of Britton House in that she describes it as a 'split-mind' that uses hypnotherapy to treat; so I should be grateful if any of you could assist me emotionally now that the Samaritans do not listen to my suicidal tendencies caused by having to deal with the outside world.

- . You must surrender to custody at the date and time as specified above
- . You will be subject to an Applicable Bail Period (ABP). The ABP covers a period that you can be bailed within by the Custody Officer before it is reviewed to ensure the investigation is being dealt with diligently and expeditiously and to ensure that bail is still necessary and proportionate.
- . If initially you were released on bail before 28/10/2022 the ABP was authorised by a Police Inspector for 28 days. The ABP can be reviewed, and an extension for another three calendar months may be authorised on or before 28 days, by a Police Superintendent. Further extensions can be authorised at 3 calendar month intervals thereafter.
- . If initially you were released on bail after 28/10/2022 the ABP was authorised by the Custody Officer for 3 calendar months. The ABP can be reviewed, and an extension for another 3 calendar months may be authorised, on or before 3 calendar months, by a Police Inspector. Further extensions can be authorised at 3 calendar months intervals thereafter.
- . If your case is being investigated by the Serious Fraud Office, or the Financial Conduct Authority, or HM Revenue and Customs, or National Crime Agency, the initial ABP for these cases is six months authorised by the Custody Officer. However, the police do not authorise extensions for these cases. This must be done by a designated officer for those agencies.

- . If your case has been immediately referred to the Crown Prosecution Service the ABP will not start unless they require the investigators to carry out further work.
- . You or your legal representative= will be informed of the intention to apply for an extension to the ABP either in person if at the police station or by your preferred means of contact. You will be asked if you want to make any representations either immediately if in person by return of post/email etc.

 . Early reviews will be conducted by relevant decision makers and later ones will be conducted by the Courts.

. The ABP will be suspended for the time that the case is sent back to the Crown Prosecution Service.

. You will be informed of the decision and the relevant time and date of the end of your ABP.

. You will also be informed of the actual date and time you are due to answer bail. This may be the same or a different time to the end of an ABP.

. The consequence of all the above is that your bail date can be subject to several amendments.

However a reasonable attempt will always be made to notify you of any changes, in writing to the address that you have provided to the police (or the preferred method of contact), and/or via your legal representative if you have one.

It is important that you notify OIC of any change of your address, your legal representative, or other point of contact, and that you provide us with any current phone numbers and email contact details. By doing so, we may be able to prevent you having to attend needlessly at a custody suite if we know (especially at short notice) that you have a new, later bail date or other information change (such as 'No Further Action').

Police Advisory Notice to Suspects

If you are involved in criminal proceedings, the following summary of potential offences is included for your information and awareness. The same offences will also be brought to the attention of any relevant victim or witness for their information. The list of offences is NOT exhaustive.

The purpose of this is to make clear to all involved parties that any unlawful, unnecessary or inappropriate contact between the suspect in a case (either directly or through a third party), and the victim or witness may constitute a criminal offence.

Any unlawful, unnecessary or inappropriate contact reported to the police, including any perception that this is the case, may result in arrests and prosecution of parties for any of the following offences

Intimidation of witnesses, jurors & others

Under 5.51 of the Criminal Justice & Public Order Act 1994 it is an offence to intimidate or threaten by any means any person involved in the investigation of an offence relating to criminal matters.

In summary proceedings A fine and/or maximum six months imprisonment

On indictment A fine and/or maximum five years imprisonment

'Harassment'

Under 5.2 of the Protection from Harassment Act 1997, it is an offence for a person to pursue a course of conduct which amounts to harassment of another, and which he/she knows or ought to know amounts to harassment of the other, or to persuade any person not to do something that they are entitled or required to do, or to do something that they are not under any obligation to do.

In summary proceedings A fine and/or maximum six months imprisonment

On indictment: A fine and/or maximum two years imprisonment

Please note that other, more serious, offences are also provided for under the Protection from Harassment Act 1997

Perverting the Course of Justice

Under Common Law, it is an offence to conspire, act or embark upon a course of conduct which has a tendency to, and is intended to pervert, the course of public justice.

Some of the ways where conduct is capable of amounting to this offence is by making false allegations, perjury, concealing offences, obstructing the police, assisting others to evade arrest, failing to prosecute, interfering with witnesses/evidence/jurors, and publication of matters calculated to prejudice a fair trial.

On indictment: Maximum LIFE imprisonment

Postal Charging

This leaflet explains Postal Charging and answers some questions you may have.

What is Postal Charging?

This is a method of bringing an offender before a court for prosecution.

It means that you could be charged and required to attend court by post without returning to a police station.

Can I be charged by post?

If you have been in police custody and you are granted unconditional police bail to return to a police station at a later date you may be charged by means of a 'postal charge' if a decision is made to charge you.

How does it work?

If a decision is made to charge you at least 14 days before you are due to answer your bail you may receive a 'charge' and a 'requisition' to attend court through the post.

Will I still be on Police bail?

Once a postal charge and requisition has been issued you will no longer be on police bail for that offence.

What do I do if I receive a Postal Charge?

You will receive a charge/requisition form (MG4D). This will state the offence(s) with which you are charged. This will require you to attend court at a specified date and time.

If you fail to attend court when required a warrant will be issued for your arrest. If this happens, If this happens you may be held in custody until the next available date

If you do not receive a postal charge or a bail cancellation notice you must answer your police bail at the date and time shown on your bail form.

NOTICE TO PERSON WHOSE INTERVIEW HAS BEEN RECORDED Kent Police

This notice explains how the recording will be used and how you or your solicitor will be provided with a copy of the recording, if you are charged or informed you will be prosecuted.

The recording of your interview is protected against tampering by design. There is a record kept electronically of all activity concerning the interview recording so if it is viewed copied or burned to disk an audit trail is left. It is fully compliant with the Police and Criminal Evidence Act 1984.

If you are charged or informed that you will be prosecuted a copy of your recording will be supplied to you or your solicitors either at the end of the interview or as soon as practicable afterwards. If you are not charged and no decision has been made you will not normally be supplied with a copy at this stage.

You may decide you do not want a copy even if you are offered one but that does not prevent you or your solicitor from requesting a copy at a later date. Requests need to be submitted via email to: Victim.Justice@kent.police.uk

PLEASE NOTE YOU ARE ONLY ENTITLED TO A COPY IF YOU ARE CHARGED OR SUMMONSED.

You should quote the following information

Name: DC Katie Field Date of interview: 13.7.2023

Referral to Full Court Hearing

Your case was considered by the court under the single justice procedure. However, owing to the reasons given, your case has now been referred to a hearing before a full magistrates' court. For information on the reason, see below.

For trial

At the next hearing, the magistrates will receive evidence either in the form of written statements or from any witnesses that attend court. You must attend, and bring with you any witness that you will call to give evidence on your behalf. If you do not agree with any statement being read to the court, you must inform the prosecution immediately.

Advice and help

If you need advice on what to do you should get help from a lawyer or advice agency at once. If you cannot afford a lawyer, you may be able to get free advice about your case. For more information see www.lawsociety.org.uk/for-the-public/common-legal-issues/criminal/

Do not wait until you come to court.

If you need any general help about this summons contact the court office. PLEASE NOTE: Court staff are not able to give you specific advice on how to respond to the allegation.

THIS LETTER SERVES AS CARE PLAN DOCUMENTATION

Dear Dr Shah

Mr Shantanu Panigrahi
NHS Number: 628 477 1487 Date of birth: 8 Aug 1957
Primary Address: 3 Hoath Lane, Gillingham, Kent, ME8 0SL

Diagnosis:
Paranoid Schizophrenia

Current Medications:
Risperidone 2 mg bd
Sertraline 150 mg daily
Depakote 500 mg

Proposed Changes
-to take risperidone 4 mg at night, no morning dose
-to start aripiprazole 5 mg daily
-to increase Depakote to 500 mg morning and 750 mg nocte
-to continue with sertraline 150 mg daily

Review:
I spoke to Shantanu via telephone for a scheduled appointment on 26/06/23. He described being in crisis over a period of time and has been arrested by police four times in the last 18 months. He said he was accused of stalking, malicious communications and harassment. He tells me that he attended Medway Police Station recently for further questioning. He believes that Trolls hacked into his email and were responsible for all the police have accused him of but the police are not having it. His laptop and phones were taken away by the police. He also informed me that he took the Greenwich

University to tribunal and lost the case. He believes that the state is against him and want to repatriate him back to India but says he is not going anywhere as he will resist them.

He lives with his family and is unemployed. He is undergoing some therapy at the moment and that seems to be helping him to cope with current crisis. He is also planning for holidays with his family to Turkey and India. His appetite is good and sleeps about 4 to 6 hours at night and naps during the day. He smokes about 10 to 12 cigarettes a day but no alcohol or illicit drug use. He is compliant with meds and has not reported any side effects. He is willing to continue taking treatment.

On the phone, he sounded worried but was able to ventilate his mind. His speech was normal in rate and volume but content mixed with delusional ideas. In answer to my question he wondered whether it is because of his illness that he is reasoning the way he is. He described his mood as being up and down and most times feels depressed. He did not express suicidal ideas and there is no indication that he is physically harmful to anyone. In my view, the major risk is that of believing his delusional ideas and acting on them and also being vulnerable on the social media if he continues his exploits on the social media. His insight is limited and does appear to have capacity to consent on his treatment.

The suggested changes which he agrees with is as outlined above. GP to please adjust repeat prescriptions accordingly.

Yours sincerely

Thank you for your email.

Please read the following and any relevant links below, if your email is answered by the information below or one of the relevant links below, you will not receive a further response.

Coronavirus Working Practices

In line with current Government Guidelines, staff are currently working both on site and remotely. Full details of what this means for the individual departments within the Queen's Bench Division are reviewed and updated constantly, they are published at the following link and can be found under the heading Royal Courts of Justice (RCJ). There are no public counters. The Fees Office counter is open by appointment only.

Phones

Telephones will be answered between 10am-4pm. The number to call is 020 3936 8957. If your query is not urgent, please email the office you wish to contact. A list of e-mails are at the bottom of this message. If you are seeking sealed orders, applications or hearing notices, where possible, please check the electronic case file (CE-File).

Filing of Documents/Visiting the Royal Courts of Justice

If you cannot file a document via the preferred methods of CE-File or email, you can post the documents to our department or leave them in a drop box just inside the main entrance. If you do visit the RCJ, you will not be able to speak with any staff other than security.

Hearings

The current directive from the Lord Chief Justice are that hearings will now be listed in court. If a party or parties want to request a remote hearing, either by MS Teams or BT Meet Me. They must contact the Listing Office providing full reasons why a remote hearing is requested. This will then be forwarded to the assigned Judge for consideration. The Daily Cause List is published each day between 2-3pm.

Hearings by Cloud Video Platform (CVP) can be arranged if required for hearings in court only (hybrid cases).

Telephone hearings will be undertaken by BT Meet Me conference system, and a court associate will cover and record the hearing.

Legal Representatives Only

Pursuant Practice Direction 51O of the CPR, all documents must be filed via CE-File. Any documents received via post or email will be destroyed via confidential waste, only documents with cheques will be returned to you.

Exceptions to the above apply where the court requests alternative filing, advice by Counsel for an approval hearing or stated in another Practice Direction or Part of the CPR. If an order states filing by email, please attach a copy of the order and state the paragraph with this direction.

Any Party

In accordance with Practice Direction 5B – all emails to the court should include the following, failure to do so will result in the court not actioning or acknowledging your email.

Subject Header – Case number, parties' names and any dates relating to an up-coming hearing

Provide a clear description of the contents in the body of the e-mail message. Please refrain from messages such as "Please see attached".

Please copy your message to the relevant parties where applicable.

Any document that carries a fee and does not state or include proof of payment or fee remission will not be actioned.

If you're unable to comply with these points or any other part of Practice Direction 5B - Electronic communication and filing, your message will not be dealt with.

Dear Sir/Madam

As the day nears its end with no replies from any of the parties to whom my email was copied, I end with the submission that the correspondence that you have sent these automatic responses to also constitutes my Defence (in writing of a criminal conspiracy against me by hundreds of institutions and persons) to any summons served on me for Trial by Kent Police at North Kent Magistrates Court, East Kent Magistrates Court or Maidstone Crown Court.

Wherever these summons have been served for my Trial after approval of the Crown Prosecution Service, please let me know the progress combining all Cases as one Summons.

Yours sincerely
